MOHAMMED KHURRAM WALI,

File No. A47 932 027,

Plaintiff,

v.

MICHAEL MUKASEY, U.S. Attorney General,

Department of Homeland Security;

EMILIO T. GONZALEZ, U.S. CITIZENSHIP
& IMMIGRATION SERVICES, District Director,

Chicago District Office,

Defendants.

CASE NO.

MAGISTRATE

COMPLAINT FOR MANDAMUS

NOW COMES the Plaintiff, Mohammed Khurram Wali, by and through his attorney, Bonita B. Hwang Cho, Law Offices of Cheng, Cho & Yee, P.C., and complaining of Defendants, states as follows:

JURISDICTION

1. This is a civil action brought pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 704 and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and § 1361, to compel the Defendants, Emilio T. Gonzales and the U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services, under the Department of Homeland Security, to accord Plaintiff the due process of law and constitutionally fair procedures in the application process to which he is entitled pursuant to the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

2. This action is brought to compel Defendants and those acting under them to adjudicate an N-400 Application for Naturalization filed by Plaintiff, Mohammed Khurram Wali, (hereinafter "Wali"), which was filed almost two years ago.

PARTIES

3. Wali is a citizen of Pakistan and holds lawful permanent resident status.
4. Defendant Emilio T. Gonzales is the District Director of Citizenship & Immigration Services (“CIS”) for the District of Chicago, and is empowered to adjudicate visa petitions and naturalization applications.

FACTS

5. On June 13, 2006 Wali filed an N-400 Application for Naturalization (Exhibit “A”).
6. Wali has not received an interview for his N-400 Application to date.
7. It has been almost two years, and Wali has still not been scheduled for an interview on his N-400 application even though Wali is entirely eligible for naturalization.

CLAIMS

8. Defendants have willfully and unreasonably delayed and refused to schedule Plaintiff’s interview on the N-400 Application for Naturalization without any valid cause. Defendant, Emilio T Gonzales, has the authority to schedule adjudicate said application.
9. “District directors are delegated the authority to grant or deny any application or petition submitted to the Service, except for matters delegated to asylum officers pursuant to part 208 and § 253.1(f) of this chapter, or exclusively delegated to service center directors” 8 C.F.R. § 103.1(g)(2)(ii)(B).
10. Thus, Defendants have jurisdiction and are entirely empowered to schedule and adjudicate Plaintiff’s case, but are unwilling to do so.

11. Plaintiff is entitled to due process of law and constitutionally fair procedures in the application process pursuant to the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and inaction on applications is a denial of due process of law and is constitutionally unfair.

12. Defendants owe Plaintiff a duty to adjudicate Plaintiff's N-400 Application for Naturalization in a timely manner, and Defendants have unreasonably failed to perform that duty. Defendants do not have the discretion to refuse to adjudicate any petition.

13. Defendants' refusal to schedule for an interview and adjudicate Plaintiff's case has deprived Wali of the benefits of citizenship in the United States.

14. No administrative remedy is available to the Plaintiff to compel the CIS to do its job and prevent needless delay and inaction from which the Plaintiff is now suffering.

15. Rendering a decision on an N-400 Application for Naturalization is a purely ministerial, non-discretionary act which the CIS District Director is compelled to do in fulfilling the duties of his office.

16. Defendants' actions are without substantial justification. Defendants, by refusing to adjudicate Plaintiff's application, have forced Plaintiff to resort to this Court for relief, and Plaintiff is entitled to attorneys fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff prays that this Court:

1. Compel Defendants and those acting under them to immediately perform their duty to schedule an interview and adjudicate the N-400 Application for

Naturalization filed by Plaintiff;

2. Declare that there are no just grounds for the Service to refuse to adjudicate Plaintiff's application;
3. Grant attorneys' fees and costs of court under the Equal Access to Justice Act;
4. Grant such other and further relief as is fit and proper.

Respectfully submitted,
MOHAMMED KHURRAM WALI
